SUSTAINABILITY

Integrating sustainability into our student trips and tours is a core commitment, ensuring that our educational journeys are responsible and leave a positive impact.

We prioritise partners with strong environmental credentials, favour low-carbon transport like trains where feasible, and actively minimise waste by reducing single-use plastics. Furthermore, we select activities that support local communities and cultural preservation, turning our travels into practical lessons in environmental stewardship and global citizenship.

We show students that exploring the world can go hand-in-hand with protecting it and to inspire them to become responsible global citizens and contribute to a more sustainable future.

EMPATHY & COMMUNITY

Our student tours are intentionally designed to be more than just trips; they are immersive experiences in community relationships, team building with colleagues and empathetic understanding.

We carefully build itineraries that encourage collaboration and mutual support among students, fostering a strong sense of belonging within their own travel group. Beyond this, we connect them meaningfully with the communities we visit.

These encounters are central to our mission, as they challenge perspectives and cultivate a deep, genuine empathy for different ways of life. Ultimately, we aim to equip students not just with memories, but with the profound understanding that they are part of a larger global community, inspiring them to become more compassionate and engaged citizens.

FRANCE – THE HISTORY & CULTURE OF PARIS

Steeped in a history that spans over two millennia, Paris has evolved to being at the epicentre of European enlightenment and a modern global capital.

A student tour to Paris is a whirlwind of iconic sights and cultural immersion, beginning with the awe-inspiring ascent of the Eiffel Tower for a breathtaking panorama of the city.

Days are spent navigating the grand halls of the Louvre to witness the enigmatic smile of the Mona Lisa and strolling through the artistic haven of Montmartre, where the stunning Sacré-Cœur basilica overlooks bustling squares.

The experience is deepened by the profound history felt in the hallowed halls of Notre -Dame and along the charming, bookstall-lined banks of the Seine.

Evenings are filled with such as a river cruise on the Seine and the unmistakable Parisian ambience, transforming the trip from a simple vacation into a lifelong memory of art, history, and inspiration.

From the philosophical salons of the Enlightenment and the radical Impressionist movement to the birth of cinema and the timeless allure of its café culture, Paris has consistently been a crucible of ideas whose influence in art, literature, fashion, and gastronomy has profoundly shaped the world.

Main attractions also include the Cathedral of Notre Dame, Les Invalides, The Louvre galleries, and the artists and café area of Montmartre and Pigalle.

GERMANY & POLAND – HISTORY & CULTURE

Germany and Poland, central European neighbours, possess histories and cultures marked by both convergence and distinct individuality.

Our tour combines Berlin and Krakow and offers a powerful journey through twentieth-century history, balanced with vibrant modern culture.
In Berlin, the past becomes palpable at sobering sites like the East Side Gallery, where art covers the remains of the Wall, and the Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe, which provides a profound space for reflection. We take in several other aspects of the Cold War period, including 'Checkpoint Charlie', the zone that separated East and West.

The energy shifts in Krakow, where students can wander through the vast medieval market square, explore the majestic Wawel Castle, and then confront the harrowing reality of a guided visit to the Auschwitz-Birkenau memorial, a deeply moving and essential experience. The trip is framed by Berlin's gritty, innovative art scene and Krakow's lively student quarters and traditional pierogi shops, creating a poignant contrast between a resilient past and a dynamic present.

A visit to the amazing Wieliczka Salt Mine near Krakow is a must while here. This UNESCO World Heritage site is renowned for its breathtaking and stunning chambers, all carved out of rock salt. The highlight for most visitors is the magnificent Chapel of St. Kinga, an entire underground church decorated with salt sculptures and chandeliers.

Poland's identity has been defined by its position as a nation often fighting for its very existence, with its unwavering Catholic faith and a romantic spirit of resistance fuelling a rich artistic and intellectual life, from the music of Chopin to the poetry of Miłosz.

Despite a painful shared past, both have emerged as vital, resilient cultures—Germany as a European economic leader and Poland as a symbol of post-communist transformation and enduring national pride.

CHINA:
SHANGHAI

Shanghai's history is a dramatic tale of a small fishing village transformed, within a century, into an astonishing, pulsating global metropolis.

Its identity was forged in the crucible of international trade, evolving from a treaty port after the First Opium War into the "Paris of the East" and a notorious "Adventurer's Paradise" in the 1920s and 30s.

You can witness this in the stunning architectural juxtaposition of the colonial Bund against the futuristic skyscrapers of Pudong on the opposite side of the river and experience it in a lifestyle that is both fiercely entrepreneurial and deeply immersed in the sophisticated, contemporary arts, fashion, and café scenes that define modern Chinese urbanity.

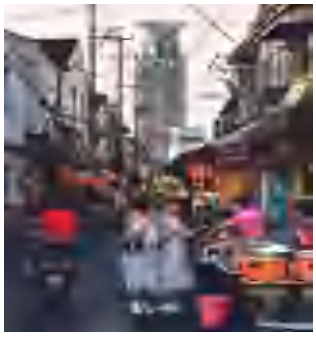

Our tours here include taking in scenic and old architectural areas around the tree-lined avenues of the former French Concession, visiting Jing 'An Temple, with its traditional and gilded Buddhist setting right alongside the bustle of busy business streets and modern glass office towers.

We can sample a multitude of culinary delights from all over the provinces of China, the narrow and delightful shopping alleyways of Tianzi Fan, and we can even arrange you a presentation at the offices of one of the top businesses in the city to hear about their industry sector, their market opportunities and business operations.

We can include an all-day trip by private coach to the old city area in the suburb of Songjiang. This was the prosperous economic and cultural centre of the Jiangnan region during the Ming and Qing dynasties.

We visit a local and well-known tea company who bring high quality Chinese tea from the province of Guizhou in the southwest for distribution, where we have a talk and demonstration of the history of tea (a highly important element of Chinese culture throughout history and to the present day).

BEIJING

Beijing's history is one of imperial grandeur and political power, serving as the nucleus of Chinese civilization for centuries under the Yuan, Ming, and Qing dynasties.

This enduring role as the capital is etched into its very layout, from the symmetrical majesty of the Forbidden City-the world's largest palace complex-to the cosmic alignment of the Temple of Heaven.

A student tour to Beijing is a profound journey through layers of imperial history and modern ambition, beginning with the awe-inspiring challenge of walking the ancient stones of the Great Wall at Mutianyu, snaking dramatically over mountain ridges.

Explore the vast, palatial expanse of the Forbidden City, where students can walk in the footsteps of emperors through a succession of majestic courtyards and halls.

The rhythmic energy of the city is felt in the hutongs, where cycle rickshaw rides offer glimpses of traditional courtyard life, contrasting sharply with the modern architecture of the Olympic Park and the amazing architecture of the 'Bird's Nest' stadium.

Highlights here are also walking around the huge Tiananmen Square, visiting Mao's tomb, the wonderful, landscaped areas, gardens and buildings of the Summer Palace and the multitude of historical and cultural elements that make up this stunning city.

The Beijing Winter Olympic Ski Park area is not far away, and we have excellent ski tour itineraries developed for spending time here with guaranteed snow during the season from Dec to April. A ski tour can include a cultural day or two visiting Beijing.

Bangkok offers student tours a thrilling immersion into a modern metropolis steeped in tradition, providing lessons in culture, history, and urban life.

The city's spiritual heart is revealed at the Grand Palace and Wat Arun, where the dazzling architecture and sacred ceremonies provide a profound understanding of Thai Buddhism and monarchy.

As a cultural capital, Bangkok also allows for unique hands-on experiences, from watching a Muay Thai match to learning the art of Thai cuisine in a popular cooking class.

This dynamic blend of the sacred and the everyday, the historic and the hyper-modern, ensures that a student tour of Bangkok is as educational as it is exhilarating, offering a comprehensive and unforgettable introduction to the pulse of Thailand.

In the city business districts we can arrange visits to top international companies to hear about their business operations, and on leaving the inner-city area we can take you to nearby destinations that are easy to get with short car rides, by train or flights.

These include many beaches and islands, the ancient capital of Ayutthaya, the notorious and historical railway and bridge over the river Kwai at Kanchanaburi, and to hillside villages to experience the traditional way of country life.

CHAING MAI

Nestled in the mountainous north of Thailand, Chiang Mai's history is one of independent royal kingdoms and cultural flourishing far from the central Thai plains.

Chiang Mai presents an ideal destination for student tours, seamlessly blending cultural immersion, hands-on learning, and natural adventure.

Students can engage directly with Thai traditions through interactive experiences like participating in a Thai cooking class, supporting ethical tourism at an elephant sanctuary, or bargaining for unique handicrafts at the vibrant night bazaars.

The surrounding mountainous landscape offers further educational opportunities, from trekking to hill-tribe villages to learn about diverse local cultures, to visiting the stunning Sticky Waterfalls, where the unique limestone rock allows for a safe and memorable climb.

We can couple together a trip to Chaing Mai with either Bangkok, or Laos (see next page)

LAOS

For a student tour focused on cultural immersion and natural wonders, Laos offers a profoundly rewarding experience far from the typical tourist trail.

The jewel is Luang Prabang, a UNESCO World Heritage town where students can witness the serene, predawn ritual of monks collecting alms and explore magnificent temples like Wat Xieng Thong.

Beyond the city, learning opportunities abound - participating in a traditional weaving workshop supports local communities, while a boat trip along the Mekong River leads to the sacred Pak Ou Caves, filled with thousands of Buddha statues.

For adventure and environmental education, the Vang Vieng region provides stunning karst landscape exploration through kayaking and caving, while the Bolaven Plateau showcases the journey of coffee from bean to cup.

VIETNAM - HCMC (SAIGON) & HANOI

Ho Chi Minh City (HCMC) or Saigon, and Hanoi offer student tours a compelling dual perspective on Vietnam, contrasting the nation's dynamic present with its resilient past.

In the southern hub of HCMC, students can delve into modern history at the Cu Chi Tunnels, an extensive underground network that provides a tangible, hands-on understanding of wartime resilience and is a short distance north of the city, and at the War Remnants Museum, which presents profound lessons on conflict.

The city's energy is palpable in the bustling Ben Thanh Market and the historic Notre-Dame Cathedral, showcasing its French colonial influences. Vietnam also has a stunning 'art scene' and is justly famous for the amazing images that the artists of the country produce.

There are many wonderful galleries to visit and art that is easy to view at many local art shops and markets around the city.

Its culture is defined by an infectious, entrepreneurial energy, a relentless pace of life played out on millions of motorbikes, and a spirit of resilience and openness that absorbs global trends while retaining its distinctive Vietnamese character

Meanwhile, Hanoi, the capital in the north, presents a more traditional and political face. Here, students can witness the solemnity of Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum, explore the ancient halls of the Temple of Literature—Vietnam's first university—and wander the charming, chaotic streets of the Old Quarter, each named for its historical craft.

Hanoi, as the ancient capital of a thousand years, is the custodian of Vietnam's cultural heart, where the influences of a millennium of Chinese rule and French colonialism are etched into its broad, tree-lined boulevards, tranquil lakes, and the revered Temple of Literature.

Together, these cities create a comprehensive narrative, allowing students to explore the layers of Vietnamese history, culture, and economic transformation from both a colonial and wartime perspective.

If Hanoi is the nation's scholarly, poetic soul, Saigon is its ambitious, beating heart.

CAMBODIA
ANGKOR WAT

Angkor Wat stands as a magnificent testament to the zenith of the Khmer Empire, which dominated much of Southeast Asia from the 9th to the 15th centuries.

Angkor Wat more commonly and correctly known as the Temples of Angkor in Siem Reap, Cambodia—offers an unparalleled student tour destination, transforming lessons in history, art, and religion into a tangible, awe-inspiring experience.

This vast archaeological park, a UNESCO World Heritage site, serves as an open-air classroom where students can witness the grandeur of the Khmer Empire firsthand. They can marvel at the iconic tree roots engulfing Ta Prohm, analyse the intricate bas-reliefs depicting ancient myths and daily life at Angkor Wat, and contemplate the enigmatic stone faces of the Bayon Temple.

Beyond the majestic ruins, the experience is deepened by interactions with the local community, learning about modern Cambodian culture and the ongoing efforts of archaeological preservation.

A visit to Angkor is more than sightseeing; it's a profound journey that connects students to the rise and fall of empires, the power of human artistry, and the enduring spirit of a nation, leaving them with a powerful perspective on Southeast Asian civilization.

Today, it remains the soul of Cambodia, a profound source of national pride and a living site of worship, its majestic, jungle-reclaimed ruins symbolizing both the transcendent glory of an ancient civilisation and the enduring resilience of the Khmer spirit.

We couple together a 5-Day trip to Angkor Wat and Phnom Pehn – see next page

CAMBODIA

PHNOM PENH

Phnom Penh offers a profoundly impactful experience for student tours, providing an essential and sobering education in modern history while also showcasing the resilience of the Cambodian spirit.

The city serves as a crucial living history classroom, where students can engage with the difficult legacy of the Khmer Rouge at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum (S-21) and the Killing Fields of Choeung Ek, fostering critical discussions on human rights and the consequences of ideological extremism.

This stark contrast is immediately felt at the majestic Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda, which illuminate the nation's deep-rooted traditions and artistic heritage.

Further enriching the experience, students can witness the vibrant pulse of local life along the Tonlé Sap riverfront and at the bustling Central Market and even participate in a philanthropic cooking class that supports local communities. A river cruise on the Mekong can take in a visit to a silk farm.

A tour of Phnom Penh is challenging yet vital, moving beyond simple sightseeing to foster global citizenship, historical empathy, and a powerful appreciation for Cambodia's ongoing journey of recovery and cultural pride.

JAPAN – Tokyo & Kyoto

Tokyo and Kyoto represent the dynamic dual hearts of Japan: one of imperial tradition and the other of relentless modernity.
A student tour of Tokyo is a thrilling immersion into Japan's futuristic pulse and vibrant pop culture. Students can experience the iconic scramble of the Shibuya Crossing, a mesmerizing spectacle of organized chaos, and explore the youthful, eccentric fashion and gadget culture of Harajuku's Takeshita Street.

The digital art wonders of teamLab Borderless offer a cutting-edge sensory experience, while a visit to the historic Asakusa district and the serene Senso-ji temple provides a crucial glimpse into the city's enduring traditions.

The ascent of the Tokyo Skytree offers a breathtaking panorama of the sprawling metropolis, perfectly framing the immense scale and energy of a city that constantly looks to the future.

In stark contrast, the journey to Kyoto feels like a step back in time to the graceful heart of traditional Japan. Here, the highlights are found in the city's unparalleled collection of temples, shrines, and zen gardens. Students can walk through the thousands of vibrant torii gates that form a path up the mountainside at Fushimi Inari Shrine and witness the sublime golden reflection of Kinkaku-ji (the Golden Pavilion).

The geisha district of Gion, with its preserved wooden machiya houses, offers a chance to appreciate the refined artistry of ancient Japan. A visit to the Arashiyama Bamboo Grove creates a truly unforgettable experience, as pathways wind through a soaring, whispering forest of green stalks, encapsulating the quiet beauty and profound spirituality that defines Kyoto.

「BUSINESS EXPERIENCES WITH MAJOR COMPANIES」

Shanghai (pg 56-57) | Bangkok (pg 58) | California (pg 59)

We offer a range of different BUSINESS EXPERIENCE trips: from international company visits in the centre of Shanghai and Bangkok to the financial epicentres of London and New York and California's tech-centric Silicon Valley.

These are specifically designed to inspire your students to think about their own next steps for university courses and to their career paths, as well as potential internship opportunities even during school years. They will also learn the implications of current changes in the modern workplace and the global economy.

SHANGHAI

Premiership Experience have developed a number of strong relationships with very senior companies and their director teams in Shanghai, for working together on a programme for assisting senior school students into understanding much more about business and potential career paths for their future.

This innovative project which we have designed and created in association with top businesses, has been well received by industry leaders throughout Shanghai, many of whom are major global brands and famous international companies throughout the world.

It's all about inspiring youth in the consideration for their future, demonstrating to them different industries and how they work, which may assist them for what they will study at university, and later, their career choices.

We also develop internship opportunities for students in this programme, both while at school and then during their university years.

The content of each company visit depends on the business we are visiting, but includes presentations by senior director level personnel, illustrations of their business model, what their market is and how they operate in their specific industry sector.

「BUSINESS EXPERIENCES WITH MAJOR COMPANIES」

SHANGHAI

These 'Business Experiences' can be from short visits to understand a company's role in their field and how they fulfil that, to a half day or even a full day of learning, shadowing and assisting.

We work in partnership across a number of different sector leaders in: Finance, Medical, Hospitality, Resourcing, Robotics, Investments, Service Management, Design & Architecture, Energy, etc.

We strongly advise that students witness a variety of different industries, not just those they think are what they are going to go into, as their interest can change once they either start their university course, or when commencing work in their selected fields. Seeing several different company operations can radically inspire students into what lies ahead for them and their life choice for their future and alter or firm up their considerations.

"Premiership Experience arranged for us to have several visits to companies at their offices in different industry sectors in Bangkok, where we experienced first-hand the operations of how these companies work, and also the challenges they face going forward.

These meetings and presentations were ideal for our senior students, with the contacts and research made by Premiership Experience in setting up these collaborations being a significant help to us in what we have wished to do to give our students some understanding of how business works at international and high-level companies."

「PROFESSIONAL BUSINESS TRAINING」

Shanghai & Hong Kong (Finance only) & London (Various Professions)
(pg 60)

Our programmes range from single day stock trading simulations in schools to residential programmes and internships in the City of London. Our partner company for doing this training course runs the assessment programmes for candidates applying to join the world's top investment banks.

SHANGHAI & HONG KONG FINANCE TRAINING

One of the most popular career options is finance and in particular asset management. We can offer a 'one-day taster' in asset management that be held in school, or in a hotel.

This one-day course will teach students what it is really like to work in finance. Participants will be taught how to trade and manage assets and then get to buy and sell using the industry-leading simulation.

The world's leading investment banks and trading houses rely on our partner finance company to assess applicants for post-graduate jobs. The exposure to financial markets is as close to reality as possible. The course has also previously been offered to elite students from leading schools in the US and UK such as Eton College and Oxford University.

At the end of the one-day workshop, all participants will get a full review of their performance: their strengths, weaknesses and areas to focus on.

Having taken part, pupils can demonstrate to universities and potential employers that they have committed time and energy to understanding the reality of career in finance. They can also speak with more authority about the realities of banking and finance. For students of economics, this course makes clear what the academic principles of finance mean in reality.

Students can go on from this one-day training to have a 1-week 'Boot camp' programme aimed to provide participants with an insight into three key areas of the finance industry: Hedge Fund Investment, Macro Research, and Sales & Trading.

We also offer a 12-day Immersive London Experience, which focuses on exploring how financial institutions help corporations raise capital through the process of an initial public offer (IPO). This course is held in Imperial College London or UCL London.

LONDON RESIDENTIAL SUMMER CAMPS FOR BUSINESS TRAINING

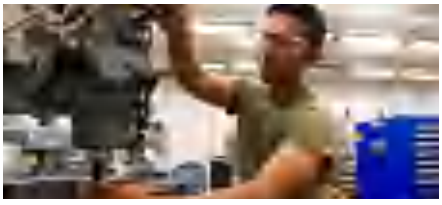

This is the 'ultimate work experience course'. We offer teenagers the opportunity to gain hands-on, practical industry experience alongside leading professionals, so that they can choose the right career for them and maximise their potential.

These residential courses are held in London during the summer holidays and are for students between 15-18 yrs, and over either one or two weeks in length.

With 15 competitive careers to choose from, each programme is delivered by accomplished industry experts to equip students with a 360-degree insight into their respective fields.

Make the right career decisions

By experiencing an industry first-hand and gaining exposure to real professionals, students can better determine whether an industry aligns with their goals and skills. More than once, we have had a student who has decided not to follow their initial career plan after they experience the 'reality' of that profession. This is as important a lesson as that of a student confirming their selected career path when making their final university course selection and career options.

Boost your chances of breaking into a competitive field

By developing key employability skills, as well as gaining certification, UCAS points and a qualification in Work Experience, students can boost their university applications and CVs.

On these programmes, students will work alongside industry experts, who will guide them through immersive career simulations and site visits to key industry locations, so that students can gain hands-on experience of the work professionals typically carry out on a day-to-day basis. Students will also have ample opportunity to get their questions answered, by attending live Q&A panels and private networking sessions with professionals.

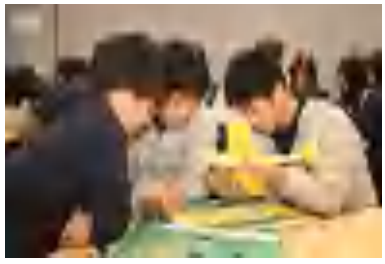

Courses are available in: Art, Architecture, Computer Science, Dentistry, Entrepreneurship, Engineering, Fashion Design, Filmmaking, Forensic Science, International Politics, Investment Banking, Law, Medicine, Psychology & Veterinary Science.

THIS COURSE CAN BE BOOKED INDIVIDUALLY BY STUDENTS
